

GED Testing

Summary

How to prepare for and schedule the HiSET® or GED® test

Overview

We offer free instructional services to help you prepare for the HiSET® or GED® test. For more information, please see abtech.edu/adult-ed, email AdultEd@abtech.edu or call (828) 398-7433.

Orientation will be your first step in getting started. At your orientation session, you'll be able to take an initial placement assessment.

Online Preparation

You can study for the HiSET® or GED® test online. After completing your online study, the actual test must be taken in person on the Asheville campus or one of our A-B Tech satellite locations.

Classroom Preparation

Morning and evening options are available. The Transitional Studies department is in Hemlock Building (#20 on our campus map). Their hours are Monday–Friday, 8:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.

If you are interested in attending at our Madison Campus, please call \(828\) 398-7700398-7700).

GED Preparation in Spanish

Free online, morning, and evening classes are also available for native Spanish speakers who want to prepare for the HiSET® or GED® test in Spanish. Interested students should complete the interest form here: Formulario de Interés- Preparación para el Diploma del High School \(GED®\) en Español. Visit Educación de Adultos en Español for more information!

Schedule a Test

To schedule the HiSET® or GED® test, contact our Department of Transitional Studies by phone at \(828\) 398-7433398-7433) or by e-mail at AdultEd@abtech.edu.

Keep in mind that these tests cannot be taken online; beware of websites and other sources that tell you otherwise.
