

Nurse Aide I (CNA) Test

Summary

How to sign up and view information about the Nurse Aide I (CNA) test

Overview

A-B Tech offers a Nurse Aide I (CNA) program. For information about the program, see abtech.edu/programs/workforce, select Health Occupations, and then select Nurse Aide I.

A-B Tech is also a regional testing location for the Nurse Aide I (a.k.a., Certified Nursing Assistant or CNA) test. We provide a location for the test, but Credential does the scheduling and provides the evaluators for the test.

Test Registration

In-facility Testing is now available for all A-B Tech Nurse Aide classes. These state testing opportunities are scheduled for each class. As an added perk to taking a class at A-B Tech, we will assist you with signing up for your exam. We still offer Regional Nurse Aide Testing dates each month in addition to the In-facility Test dates.

Please note that all state written tests must be taken electronically. Information on the qualifications are online at <https://credentia.com/test-takers/ncna>.

Instructions for Cancelling or Rescheduling an Exam can be found online.

If an exam is cancelled or delayed due to severe weather, the test center will notify you by phone and email with updates.
