

Final Exams

Summary

Overview of A-B Tech's final exam policies

Policies

Each instructor will schedule a comprehensive final course evaluation at some point during the last five days of the semester or the last two days of the class. The course schedule will indicate the date and method of evaluation. If the final evaluation is given prior to the last day of class, the schedule will reflect the class activities to take place after the final evaluation.

If your final course evaluation is in the form of an exam, you will be required to take your final exams at the time and place scheduled by your instructor. Any conflicts should be resolved directly with the instructor. Three examinations scheduled for the same day may be considered a conflict.
