Grade Scales and Codes

Summary

Overview of grade codes and the College's grading system

Final Grades

Final grades are issued at the end of the term based on the criteria outlined in the course syllabus. If you want to contest a grade, you must do so within three weeks after the grade is awarded. A grade cannot be changed after this period without approval by the department chair and the division dean.

Information about how repeating a course will impact your GPA and transcript can be found in our catalog.

A breakdown of the College's grading system can also be found in the Student Handbook, page 31.
